What does your Community Council do?

The job of the Community Council is to represent the interests of the whole community on issues that matter to them. These include planning, highways, traffic, flooding, community safety, housing, street lighting, playing fields, litter, war memorials, seats and shelters, rights of way. Bodfari Community Council can make a real difference.

The Community Council meets 7-9pm on the second Tuesday of every month apart from August. Community Councillors are required to prepare for, attend and participate in these monthly meetings.

What is the role of a Community Councillor?

A Councillor's role is to bring local issues to the attention of the Community Council, and help it make decisions on behalf of the local community.

Councillors can play a vital part in representing the interests of their communities and influencing other decision makers. Furthermore, they can take action to improve the quality of life for local people and their local environment and, in some cases, can deliver services to meet local needs. It is important that a Community Councillor, works closely with the County Councillors representing your area to benefit your community.

Payment for Community Councillors.

The Independent Remuneration Panel for Wales sets out the tax-free payments that may be made to a Community Councillor each year. The renumeration amount is currently £156 per annum contribution to the costs of working at home and £52 set rate per annum for consumables.
